From the Principal

Dear Friends and Families of St Paul's,

Week 2 of Term 4 and our attention as always during this time turns to the Class of 2024. Our Year 12 students and their families become the centre of our attention as we began the first of several farewell events. On Thursday we celebrated the outstanding achievements and contributions to our community over the last six years or more.

Thursday was the Celebration and Awards Assembly. Here we recognised all the academic, co-curricular, Christian Service and community contributions of the young men who have enjoyed the opportunity to embrace everything the College offers.

Friday morning's Graduation Mass was the pinnacle of these events as we celebrated and thanked God for the time we have shared together. We are all blessed to live in Australia and to be part of such a supportive community as St Paul's. For some parents who made the enormous decision to leave their home country to come to Australia in the hope of a better life for their children, this would never be taken for granted. Likewise, all of us should not take it for granted either.

Both occasions were wonderful, and we are always thrilled at the number of families, parents, caregivers, and grandparents who come along to partake in what is no doubt one of their proudest moments in their families. The smiles on the faces of the families are no doubt brought about by pride, but we would also suspect because they no longer will be paying school fees – or at least for this member of the family!

The College certainly acknowledges the sacrifices and unconditional love and support that these young men receive at home, and likewise the support and guidance that our staff provide. This support is not just about their final year, but right across their 13-year academic journey.

We hope and pray that the graduating class is well prepared for life after school. We hope that they have a solid values base and belief in themselves that will enable them to be both happy and successful.

2025 Prefects

As we say farewell to the Class of 2024 and thank them for their many great contributions to College life, we also congratulate those who have been chosen to continue the magnificent work of College Captain William McCulloch, and his Prefect team this year. As was announced at the Assembly on Thursday we acknowledge and congratulate the following students who will form the 2025 Prefects team.

- College Captain Jackson Rohrlach (Nagle)
- College Vice Captains Bradley Middleton (Gleeson) and Kingston Hammond (Marlow)
- Dally House Captain Jamie Agius
- Gleeson House Captain Sebastian Gladwich
- Marlow House Captain Jean Tonna Hernandez
- Nagle House Captain Rocco Giugliano
- O'Loughlin House captain Jay Faugno

This coming weekend these young men together with a number of our senior staff will venture to West Beach for a three-day Leadership Camp. We wish them well.

Farewell Assembly

Last Friday it was an immense pleasure to be able to share with Mr Peter Judd a Farewell Assembly to celebrate his retirement following 44 years of service as a teacher at St Paul's. I do not believe that Mr Judd's service and longevity will ever be repeated given the difficulty and complexity of modern-day teaching. We thank him sincerely and wish him, his wife Gayle, and their extended family the best for the future.

I am likewise extremely grateful for all the work done by Mr Foulis, Mrs Cook, Mr Martin and the Marketing Team for their efforts in providing such a lovely farewell for me and allowing me the opportunity to express my gratitude for the privilege of serving this wonderful community.

It is only week two and I look forward to completing the term and catching up with as many students and families as I can in the remaining weeks.

Take care, God Bless

Paul Belton

Year 12 Last Day and Graduation Mass

From the Secondary Years

WELCOME BACK TO TERM 4

Welcome back to Term 4 for all secondary students and families. This week we farewelled the Class of 2024 at our Awards Assembly and Graduation Mass as they concluded their formal lessons at St Paul's. Attention now shifts to preparing for end of year SACE examinations, which begin on Monday 4 November. We wish all our Year 12 students the best of luck for these examinations as they conclude their academic studies.

For our Year 7 to 11 students, the year is far from over and there is still plenty of work to be done! Year 11 students will complete their end of year examinations in Week 7, while Year 7 to 10 students will continue their class work and complete assessment tasks as part of their second semester courses.

Other key Term 4 events include:

- Year 9 Retreat (November 5)
- Secondary Art and Technology Show (November 19)
- End of Year Activities Day (December 6)

This term will also see the finalization of student timetables for 2025 and the confirmation of subject choices, and later this term we will also begin working with our 2025 Year 7 students and families to facilitate their transition, in preparation for next year.

UNIFORM

As the weather begins to warm up, a reminder to all students that hats are a compulsory part of the summer uniform policy for PE lessons, recess and lunch breaks, and excursions.

Finally, a reminder that as part of the updated college uniform policy, all students are expected to wear black leather lace-up shoes (business style – refer to image) with both the winter and summer uniform. Black leather sneakers will not be permitted as part of the school uniform.

Students and families are to ensure that they have addressed this by the start of 2025, and that they have purchased appropriate school shoes in preparation for next year.

The updated Uniform Policy can be accessed on the College website here

STUDENT LEADERSHIP

This week our 2025 College Prefect team was announced to the College, with 2025 Year 8 to 11 student positions to be finalised later this term. We congratulate the following students who will form the 2025 College Prefect Team, as they undertake the responsibility of collaboratively leading our community next year:

College Captain – Jackson Rohrlach

College Vice Captains – Bradley Middleton and Kingston Hammond

Dally House Captain – Jamie Agius

Gleeson House Captain – Sebastian Gladwich

Marlow House Captain – Jean Tonna Hernandez

Nagle House Captain – Rocco Giugliano

O'Loughlin House Captain – Jay Faugno

A reminder that all students are encouraged to consider applying for student leadership positions and represent the student cohort across various areas of college life. Should students have any questions regarding the application or election process, they are encouraged to speak to any of our current student leaders, Home Group Teachers, or Leaders of House.

From the Primary Years

Dear Families,

Welcome to Term 4! I hope you are ready for what promises to be an exciting and action-packed term. With so much to look forward to in these final months of the school year, we are eager to see our students embrace every opportunity, build on their friendships and continue their learning journey.

This term, we are continuing to focus not only on academic progress but also on the well-being of our students, ensuring they are developing in all aspects of school life. We're asking for your ongoing support with monitoring your child's safe internet and social media use. As we know, our students are underage for many social media platforms, and we want to encourage responsible online behaviour. With technology being so readily accessible, it's crucial that we guide our children in making safe and positive choices online.

While online platforms can be a way to stay connected, we want to emphasise the importance of face-to-face interactions and active play. Spring weather is a great opportunity to inspire children to get outdoors, socialise, and enjoy physical activities. These activities help develop important social skills, allow children to explore their creativity and foster friendships in a natural setting. Let's encourage our students to spend time outside, whether it's playing a sport, going for a bike ride or simply meeting up with friends and family at the park. The fresh air and sunshine can do wonders for their physical and mental well-being!

Looking ahead, one of the key tasks for our teaching staff this term is working on Pastoral Care class placements for next year. We know this is a topic that can raise questions. I want to assure you that we approach this process with great care and attention. Our goal is to create balanced classes that take into account each child's learning needs, social connections and overall development.

When making decisions about placements, we consider factors such as friendships, academic abilities, personality traits and how each child interacts within different group dynamics. Our dedicated teachers spend considerable time reviewing each student's journey to ensure that they are placed in a class group, with a Pastoral Care teacher who will best support their growth. We understand that this process can sometimes feel uncertain for parents and carers, but we ask that you trust our professional judgement and experience. Our priority is to ensure that all students are set up for success and happiness in 2025.

As we move through Term 4, we look forward to seeing our students enjoy the remainder of the school year, continuing to build strong friendships and positive memories. It's a time for reflection on how far they've come and excitement for what lies ahead.

There is so much to look forward to as we wrap up 2024 and we value your ongoing partnership and support. Together, we can ensure our students finish the year on a high note, ready to embrace the challenges and opportunities of 2025.

Thank you for being an integral part of our school community, and here's to a fantastic final term!

Music Showcase 2024

On Friday, October 18th, St Paul's College music students performed at the Norwood Concert Hall in front of over 300 parents, friends, and community members. This year, approximately 80 students participated in the event, ranging from Year 5 to Year 12, with many also contributing as backstage crew or working alongside our sound and lighting engineer.

The Norwood Concert Hall provided a professional performance space, and our students truly rose to the occasion, performing with confidence and showcasing their musical growth throughout the year. It was wonderful to see primary school students take the stage, some for the very first time, demonstrating bravery and enthusiasm for music in front of such a large audience. It was equally inspiring to see senior students perform and motivate our youngest musicians.

Congratulations to all the musicians who performed and thank you to everyone in the St Paul's community who attended the evening. We can't wait to do it all again next year!

Leanne Savill - Music and Performance Coordinator

Mr Belton and Mr Judd Assembly

Last Friday, the entire College community gathered for a special assembly to honour and congratulate two remarkable staff who have made an immense impact - Mr Paul Belton, our dedicated Principal and Mr Peter Judd for his incredible 44 years at St Paul's. Both will be retiring at the end of the year and we took this opportunity to show our appreciation for their contributions.

While Mr Belton will continue in his role until the end of the year, with our Year 12 students finishing up this week, it was the perfect time for the whole school—staff, students, and their families—to come together and celebrate the leadership, dedication, and commitment both Mr Belton and Mr Judd have shown throughout their time at St Paul's.

Thank you, Mr Belton and Mr Judd, for everything you have done.

Year 9 Girls STEM Enrichment Day

St Paul's College was invited to attend the Year 9 Girls STEM Enrichment Day at Flinders University on Thursday 26th of September. Year 9 student, Mannat Kataria, has written about her experience below:

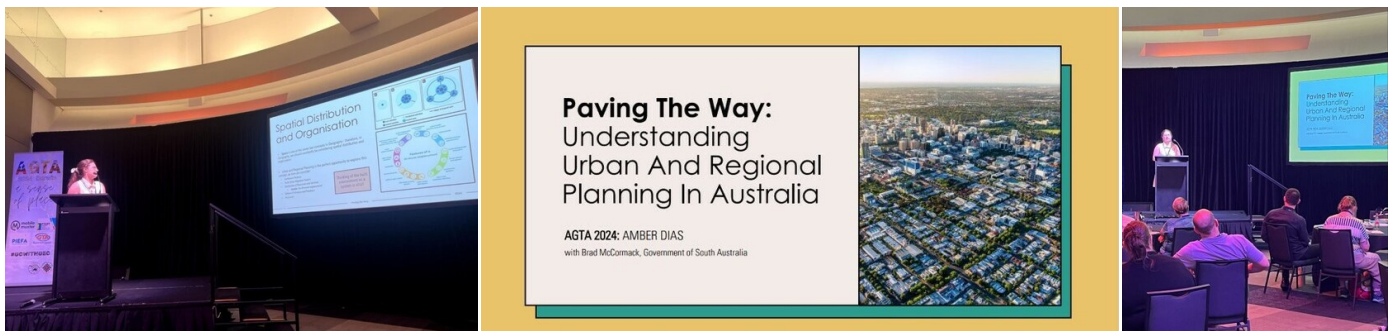

“On Thursday, a group of Year 9 girls attended a STEM Enrichment Day designed for young women interested in the field. There were two workshops, one which focused on Physical science and the other on Chemistry. Both workshops not only let us have fun, but also allowed us to think and explore our knowledge of the world around us. We covered fascinating topics such as space curvature and the creation of biodegradable plastic. We finished the day with an inspiring role model talk from Zoe Gardner, a Clean Sciences PhD. student at Flinders University. Overall, the whole day was very enlightening and enjoyable.”

Amber Dias - AGTA Conference

We are excited to congratulate Amber Dias, who recently presented at the Australian Geography Teachers Association (AGTA) Conference in Darwin during the school holidays. Her workshop, “Paving the Way: Understanding Urban and Regional Planning in Australia,” was well-attended and received fantastic reviews from educators across the country.

This achievement follows Amber's recognition earlier this year as the recipient of the DD Harris Scholarship in Geography, a testament to her dedication and expertise in the field. Congratulations again to Amber for this impressive accomplishment!

EREA Pilgrimage - John Grave

Over the Term 3 holiday, I had the incredible opportunity to travel to both India and Ireland with 13 education leaders from EREA schools across Australia. The pilgrimage was led by EREA Beyond Borders. The focus of the pilgrimage was to visit, connect and learn from Edmund Rice schools and communities across both countries.

In India, I had the pleasure to visit 4 schools: St Joseph's College, St George's Free School and St Mary's College all in Kolkata and St Columba's in New Dehli. In Ireland, I visited a number of schools in Cork, Waterford and Dublin. Two of which were co-education schools and had a very similar feel to St Paul's College.

What was clearly recognisable in all the communities we visited were the shared values and practices of the Edmund Rice Charism. There are 288 Edmund Rice schools and flexi-schools worldwide. At St Paul's College, we are an important part of the Edmund Rice story and we belong to a strong and vibrant community across the world. This is a point that will be promoted within St Paul's over the coming weeks.

The trip also allowed me to learn more about Edmund Rice. A very spiritual man who used his business talent to generate significant wealth, despite the strict penal laws preventing Catholic children from an education. He was a spiritual man who had to overcome a number of dark and troubling times in his life. He was reared in a family that provided great hospitality to the underprivileged. This was the basis of his work in establishing both the Christian and Presentation Brothers and providing education, food and clothing at the first schools established. He was influenced by strong and successful women like Nano Nagle and Mary Power to action his beliefs to help the marginalised in his society.

I am grateful for the opportunity I had to experience the hospitality of the Edmund Rice communities in both India and Ireland and I recognise the work and outreach that the St Paul's community are doing within our local community.

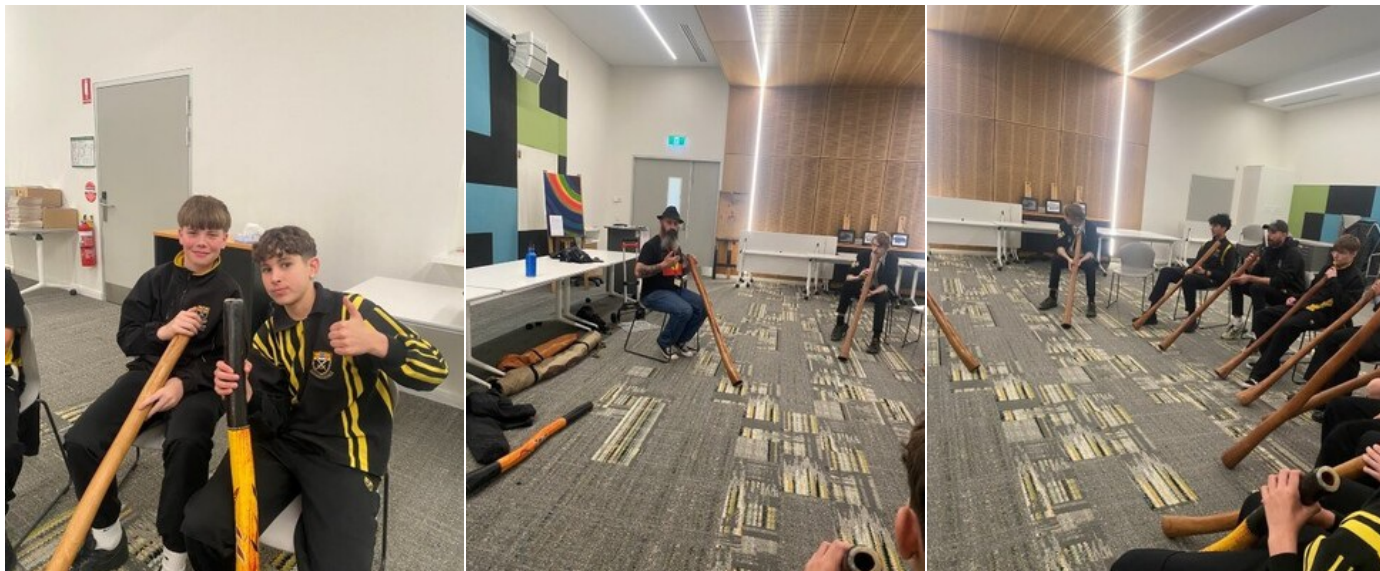

John Grave - Head of Wellbeing (Years 7-12)

Didgeridoo Workshops

During Term 3, Craig Atkins, a musician from Meru Country, came back to our school to run some didgeridoo workshops. Students learnt the basics of how to create a drone on the Yidaki and about some of the history and origins of the didgeridoo. Playing the didgeridoo requires full focus of the mind and breathing, which it a very mindful activity and can be difficult. It was great to see the students improve over the four weeks of the program. Special thanks to Nick Gillard and Claudia Lamberto for their support with the sessions.

Campbell Burton - First Nations Key Teacher

Thriving People Workshop

On Tuesday, 22 October our Aboriginal Primary Years students went to the Catholic Education Thriving People Event at the Living Kurna Cultural Centre. The students learnt about native plants, went on a bushwalk and ate some bush tucker. To end the day, students got to meet and touch some native animals. It was a very educational day where students were able to connect with their culture.

Campbell Burton - First Nations Key Teacher

O'Loughlin House Challenges

Throughout the year, O'Loughlin House students participated in a series of fun and competitive House Challenges, held bi-weekly. These events tested a wide range of skills, ensuring there was something for everyone to enjoy. Students took part in challenges such as Rock Paper Scissors, Closest to the Pin, Free Throws, Half-Court Shots, Bottle Flips, the Crossbar Challenge, Frisbee Throwing, Line Jumping, and Simon Says. Each competition provided an opportunity to earn points toward becoming the O'Loughlin Champion.

This year's title was fiercely contested, but in the end, Benjamin M claimed victory with an impressive 5 points. For his dedication and consistent performance, Benjamin was awarded a $100 Westfield voucher as a reward for his efforts. A huge congratulations to Benjamin, and well done to all the students who participated, bringing energy, enthusiasm, and sportsmanship to every challenge. We look forward to seeing who will rise to the top next year.

Alan Fulton - Leader of House - O'Loughlin

Year 2 Learning

The Year 2s have been learning about prepositions (language that tells us where things go) and procedures. To support this learning we made bugs on a biscuit! Students followed a procedure and then used the ingredients to make their creations.

The learning was very tasty!

Year 2 Team - Campbell Burton, Anita Barone, Adelle Arnese & Sharon Walker
